

Jessica Davis, Regional Executive Director serving the Greater Lakeland Area

Jessica Davis, M.S., FCCM brings more than 15 years of experience in behavioral health, dependency and nonprofit leadership to Children's Home Society of Florida.

Davis leads operations and business development, focusing on CHS' core solutions: early childhood, behavioral health, and child welfare and community solutions. Throughout Hardee, Highlands and Polk counties.

Davis previously served as the chief operating officer of Transition House and in leadership roles with Heartland, Eckerd, Devereux and the Florida Department of Children and Families.

Davis holds a Bachelor of Science in Family, Child and Consumer Science from Florida State University and a Master of Science in Business Leadership from Nova Southeastern University.