

Arthur & Polly Mays Conservatory of the Arts, A Community Partnership School

Arthur & Polly Mays Conservatory of the Arts, A Community Partnership School is the hub of our community, a place focused on student success – in school and beyond.

What makes a Community Partnership School at Arthur Polly Mays Conservatory of the Arts so special?

- Health and wellness services will be available to students
- Students will have access to healthy foods
- Help with school work will be available to students
- We want you to continue to shape Arthur Polly Mays

Serving Students

We connect students with programs and services that build on daily classroom learning. Students can improve academically, participate in after-school activities and receive onsite services.

A SNAPSHOT OF OUR SERVICES INCLUDES:

- Medical Services
- Mental health counseling
- Uniform Closet and Backpack Food Program
- FIU Stem Saturdays
- FIU College Reach Out Program
- Mentoring
- Student Leadership
- Academic Enrichment Opportunities

Serving Families

Parent involvement is a crucial part of a child's success. At our Community Partnership Schools, we offer opportunities for parents to play an active role in your child's education.

We also work with parents to help them find answers and resources they need.

FEATURED RESOURCES:

- Community adult education programs
- Access to Parent Academy resources
- Food Pantry & Food Distribution Events
- Homelessness resources (Project Upstart)
