

Jefferson County K-12, A Community Partnership School

Jefferson County K-12, A Community Partnership School is the hub of our community, a place focused on student success – in school and beyond.

What makes a Community Partnership School at Jefferson County so special?

- Health and wellness services will be available to students
- Students will have access to healthy foods
- Tutoring and Mentoring will be available to students
- We want you to continue to shape JCS!

Serving Students

We connect students with programs and services that build on daily classroom learning. Students can improve academically, participate in after-school activities and receive onsite services.

A SNAPSHOT OF OUR SERVICES WILL INCLUDE:

- Medical and vision services
- Food Pantry/Food Distribution
- Student Leadership
- Academic Enrichment Opportunities

Serving Families

Parent involvement is a crucial part of a child's success. At our Community Partnership Schools, we offer opportunities for parents to play an active role in your child's education.

We also work with parents to help them find answers and resources they need.

FEATURED RESOURCES COMING SOON:

- Community education programs
- Access to Parent Academy resources
- Food Pantry & Food Distribution Events

Serving our Tigers Staff

Our resources, services and supports are also available to JCS teachers and faculty.

We will work in partnership with you to increase community support and family engagement to drive student well-being, academic achievement and healthy school cultures.

For more information, contact Dr. Lori Livingston, Community Partnership School Director at 850-518-2207 or lori.livingston@chsfl.org

Jefferson County K-12, A Community Partnership School is a partnership among Children's Home Society of Florida, FAMU, Florida Health Jefferson County, Florida State University and North Florida College.

