

Jacob C. Jackson, Esq. Senior Vice President & General Counsel

Children's Home Society of Florida

Jacob C. Jackson, Esq. serves as Senior Vice President & General Counsel for Children's Home Society of Florida (CHS).

A member of the Florida Bar for more than two decades, Jackson has experience in various law areas including representing private, nonprofit, and public entity clients in areas of business transactions, commercial and civil litigation, employment and labor, public entity law, governance, administrative law, regulatory and compliance, healthcare, procurement, contracts, risk management, and health and human services.

Children's Home Society of Florida